The field of addiction treatment is dynamic and ever-changing. New behavioral and pharmacological approaches routinely alter the way we think about and address the treatment of those with substance use disorders.

Join host Ivette Torres, Associate Director for Consumer Affairs, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment (CSAT), Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), and a panel of experts in this important and timely Webcast as they examine recent scientific and methodological advances in addiction treatment and explore how they have improved and diversified addiction treatment services.

Panelists include:

- H. Westley Clark, M.D., J.D., M.P.H., CAS, FASAM, Director, Center for Substance Abuse Treatment, SAMHSA
- Deni Carise, Ph.D., Director of Treatment Research Institute
- Nora D. Volkow, Ph.D., Director of the National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA)
- Peter F. Luongo, Ph.D., Director of Maryland Alcohol and Drug Abuse Administration

This Webcast also contains personal stories about people in recovery and interviews from the treatment providers and others in the field that help make recovery possible.
